Established in 1797, Glen Garioch, (pronounced 'Geery') is Scotland's most Easterly distillery. For over 200 years Glen Garioch Distillery has been handcrafting a beautiful range of natural, non-chill-filtered single malt whiskies.

A variety of tours are available and they can hire out the Distillery and Visitor Centre out with normal opening hours for a truly exclusive experience - they offer bottling your own whisky and options to try some older and rarer whiskies.

i Other castles in this area:

Delgatie Castle

The Castle has largely been in the Hay family since it was taken from the Earls of Buchan after the battle of Bannockburn in 1314 when Robert the Bruce defeated the English army.

Today the Castle is kept as it was when the late Capt. Hay of Delgatie was alive and almost all the rooms in the main tower are open to see - the beautiful ballroom with a brass fender - a present from the czar of Russia on the occasion of a wedding, beautiful paintings, a very fine library.

Tolquhon Castle

See for yourself why this noble residence is said to be one of Grampian's most picturesque castles. Among the lavish details are fine carvings of its chief builder Sir William Forbes and his wife.
